

WATCH LIVE: Christians Gather to Honor Reinhard Bonnke's Life at Memorial Service

Today, Christians gather to honor the great legacy and life of evangelist Reinhard Bonnke.

Bonnke died on Saturday, Dec. 7, surrounded by family. In his 79 years on earth, Bonnke's preaching led to "more than 77 million documented decisions for Jesus."

To honor his work for the kingdom, Christ for All Nations (CfAN), the evangelism ministry Bonnke founded in 1974, is hosting a memorial service for the "Billy Graham of Africa" in Orlando, Florida.

The service, which begins at 10 a.m., is livestreamed so anyone with internet access can join and pay their respects.
