

WATCH: Paralyzed Bride Takes Miracle Walk Down the Aisle

Tami Martin's dreams of walking down the aisle probably varied from the average woman.

For starters, Martin's walk made international headlines, as it's not everyday a paraplegic woman takes the steps to unite herself with the love of her life.

Martin broke her back in a car wreck in 1999, according to USA Today, and struggled for years in physical therapy. Doctors told her she would never walk again.

"So I put my faith in God and walked 69 feet in public for the first time," Martin tells DailyMail UK. "It was a magical experience. To say that for 15 years I hadn't been able to walk and then I was walking down the aisle toward Rob."

Watch the video below for the heart-warming story.