

WATCH: Rodeo Pastor Takes Buck Wild Approach to Evangelism

Church was never about a building, but about the people who are worshipping together.

If that's the case, could a rodeo be a sanctuary?

Yes, according to Lawrence Bishop, who started riding a bull to bring people to Christ.

"What God has laid on our heart to do is to buck two wild rodeo bucking bulls inside the church sanctuary...", he says. "It's a tool to get people to come in to hear the gospel of Jesus Christ, and to stop the 'bull' in their lives of suicide [and] of drugs, and Satan—the ultimate bully—being exposed in their lives and then giving their hearts to Jesus."

No, but really. Check it out.
