

WATCH: The Inspiring Reason Families of Martyred Copts Are Thanking ISIS

The Islamic State's heart-wrenching beheadings of 21 Coptic Christians has Christians across the globe mourning the martyrs ... but not the family of two of the martyrs.

"ISIS helped us strengthen our faith," says Beshir, who was the brother of two of the martyrs, 23 and 25.

"They are a pride to Christianity, and they are my pride too," Beshir says on Christian satellite program, SAT7. "They make me walk raising my head up in pride."

You've got to watch this video and hear Beshir's incredible story of why he's grateful for how ISIS edited the video.
