

WATCH: Woman Arrested Trying to Resurrect Dead Child

Rather than reporting their child dead, parents took the body to church for a “rising ceremony.”

Witnesses say the child was possessed by demons and the parents didn’t feed him for 25 days before his death.

When he died, his parents took him to pastor Araceli Meza, who performed a “rising ceremony,” meant to bring the child back to life.

Watch the video to see if this was a community of faith supporting the family or something more sinister.
