

WATCH: Worship Erupts at the 'White House' of Prayer

Praise, worship and prayer have finally come back to America.

During a briefing at the White House for the White House Faith Office, pastors and leaders erupted in praise, singing, "How Great Thou Art."

On X, Pastor Travis Johnson shared the footage and thanked all of those who were bold and brave enough to step out in faith, proclaiming Christ's Lordship.

Freedom of speech and religious liberty matters. But, they mean nothing if they aren't exercised... if God's people fail to open their mouths and declare the goodness of God.

I'm thanking God for bold men and women of God and national leaders who move away obstacles to the greatest expression of speech, speech that worships Jesus Christ the Lord.
