

WATCH: You Won't Believe What the Feds Want Churches to Do Now

The government wants to prevent attacks on churches like Dylann Roof's assault on Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church.

"Federal officials here want to make sure houses of worship are able to develop an action plan," the reporter says.

To do that, they're asking, and helping, churches step up their security. Watch the video to see how.