

Why America's Founding Prayer Still Speaks Today

At the time of the publication of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, Rev. Jacob Dusche, chaplain for the Congress that produced America's founding document, prayed a powerful prayer for the new nation, and his prayer was recorded in the official proceedings of Congress.

It was America's founding prayer, and in this video, I read it and elaborate on why its contents are so relevant for America and the church today. {eo}
