

Why Restoration of the Church Must Be Completed

Read Time: 2 Minutes 52 Seconds

In this last webinar, Grant Berry introduced the concept that the restoration of the ekklesia/church must be complete to fulfill God's plans. Restoration began in the 16th century with the Reformation of the salvation message. In the 18th century, the emphasis was on holiness, and in the 20th century, the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Now in the 21st century, God is restoring the foundation of the ekklesia/church to its apostolic roots and the Reconnection in The One New Man (TONM).

The message of Reconnection in TONM was mostly hidden during the church age. But now that Israel's spiritual awakening is upon us, reconnection between both branches of the faith between Jewish and Gentile believers in TONM must be realized. As the ekklesia/church is re-established in the fullness of its identity with Israel, united in love, it can move in greater authority to awaken the Jewish people.

The end-time church's eyes are now beginning to open and discover that it has a tremendous role to play in this restoration. As the body reunites with Israel's remnant (Jewish believers in the land and the nations), it will help our Father restore His covenants to the firstborn in the family for Israel's salvation.

The ekklesia/church is Israel's salvific agent to faith in Yeshua. Conversely, in the 1st century, the Jews who followed Mashiach/Christ were the salvific agent to help bring Jesus to the Gentiles. In a sense, this circle of love completes wholeness in the family of God to help prepare the bride for the bridegroom. In reality, neither Jew nor Gentile can come into their inheritance to rule and reign without each other, a master plan of God.

To this point, the church has been indifferent in its witness to the Jewish people. This indifference is primarily due to past actions and negative influences from the enemy that now need exposing and healing. The body must restore love and unity and grasp the importance of its role in this mission—to understand its calling and the strategies to bring about Israel's redemption. This mandate from the Father's heart ultimately will cause a much greater flow of salvation to the nations.

Here is a scripture from the letter to the Romans from the apostle Paul that encourages Christians to share their faith with Jewish people. "How then, can they call on the One they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the One they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?" (Rom. 10:14).

love and unity in "The One New Man" now that Israel's awakening is upon us.
