

Why the Church Must Remain Vigilant in This Post-Election Hour

Trump's victory is a bigger miracle than we realize. Consider the colossal tsunami of propaganda that voters had to endure. Harris burned through $1.6 billion to manipulate Americans. That does not even include billions in free advertising. Over 90% of the media was a direct mouthpiece for the Harris-Walz campaign. And that was after the years-long multiple legal wars they declared on Trump.

As Casey Chalk said,

He endured criminal cases galore: a federal election interference case, a Georgia election interference case, a classified documents case, and a hush-money case. His political opponents labeled him a fascist, a rapist, a misogynist, a racist and an "extinction-level threat to democracy." There is no man more viscerally hated in the United States than Donald J. Trump. In spite of it all, he persuaded enough voters to be elected the 47th president.

Why am I telling you all of this? Because we are about to be treated to Act II of the Democrats. And it will be more vicious and evil than anything they have ever done. The Democrat smear machine has been slowed down, but not defeated. It is alive and well, and it is coming after you. Trump is no longer their prime target—average Americans like you and I are.

This Democrat machine smeared our team in California. Democrat operatives scared pastors and Christian leaders. It was the first time people stayed away from our tent because Democrats intimidated them. By the time we figured it out, it was too late.

But I have figured it out, and now I want to warn you. Now is not the time to let down our guard. Do not be seduced by a counterfeit Christian “love”—what I call sloppy agape. We cannot swoon and hope for reconciliation with the Left. Democrats learned nothing from their defeat. They still believe they are our rightful masters. They deem themselves superior. Their delusional mindset is the reason for their defeat. They believe they lost because we are stupid, not because wokeness is an epic disaster. They are doubling down on their insane policies.

The Democrats of today are not your grandfather's Democrats. They are now a cult whose mind has been entirely sucked into a depraved ideology. In their current state, they must be totally avoided. There is nothing sadder than the wispy, insecure Christian thinker who still yearns for the approval of the intellectual community. Especially since that community no longer exists.

3 Big Reasons We Must Eschew All Connections to Democrats

1. Any association with Democrats will ruin our Christian witness to America. In the minds of Americans, to be identified with Democrats is like being found on P. Diddy's guest list. Americans—especially working-class Americans—have repudiated them. Their goal is the destruction of America, and you, if you get in their way. Christians who befriend

Democrats will be seen as hypocrites to a breathtaking degree.

2. The only reason they want a relationship with you is to use you to destroy America. They will act nice but keep in mind that they despise you. They are only being friendly to insinuate their way back into the church. The goal is to regain power.

Jesus said, "Do not give what is holy to the dogs; nor cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you in pieces" (Matt. 7:6, NKJV). The same Jesus who said to love your enemies made this dramatic exception: If they only want to tear you to pieces, stay away from them.

3. You will be opposing an act of God. When Trump moved his head a quarter of an inch—at the exact right moment to avoid a bullet—it was a miracle. The whole world saw that God saved him so that he could save America.

What happened in November was not just an election. It was an intervention. The 77 million Americans who voted for Trump did it for a deeper reason than the media will ever admit. We are watching a greater pilgrimage back to God than America has seen in over 150 years.

Americans are on the road back to common sense, traditional values and faith. But how long will it last? The elite Leftists, with their billions of dollars, hate this. They will do everything in their power to end it.

Face it! Christianity was always the target. This is a time to learn from our mistake in 2016 when the American church did not fully back Trump. This is a time to rejoice and take our place in the unfolding miracle God is doing in America.

Mario Murillo rose from poverty in the Mission District of San Francisco. After being revolutionized by Christ, he felt a call to the University of California at Berkeley. His international ministry was launched after a four-day conference in San Jose, California, extended for six months with a total attendance of nearly 250,000 people. Since then, Mario's voice has been heard by millions around the world, bringing a message that zeroes in on the hurts of society. He presents Christ clearly and intelligently, and openly declares the power of Jesus to totally transform a life. His simple declaration: Come and see. Christ has the power to end addiction, racism, violence and disease.
