

You Won't Believe What Marvel Did for This Pentecostal Megachurch

New Spirit Revival Center Pastor Darrell Scott's office is brimming with special gifts from Ike Perlmutter.

The Marvel chairman donated toys to New Spirit Revival Center so they could bless children in need.

*Marvel Entertainment CEO Ike Perlmutter shipped a truckload of toys to our Church to bless children with.
#ThanksIkeandLaurie*

– Scott (@PastorDScott) Dec. 20, 2017

@MichaelCohen212 @PastorDScott friends of friends are now our friends thank u Michael and thanks to Ike and Laurie Perlmutter!

– Dr.B (@drbelindascott) December 20, 2017

Perlmutter, an Israeli immigrant, sold toys on the streets of Brooklyn in 1967, where he was first introduced to Marvel, according to Forbes. The business magazine reports Perlmutter revived the company's stock by producing action-hero movies like Spiderman, Daredevil, Hulk and Iron Man. In 2009, he sold a majority of Marvel to Disney for $4 billion in cash and stock.

Perlmutter's reportedly donated $100,000 to President Donald Trump's campaign, and Scott is one of Trump's key evangelical advisers.