

12 Completed, 12 Coming: Understand God's 24 End-Times Prophecies

In 24 End Time Prophecies Podcast with Pastor and Author Rick Blomgren on the Charisma Podcast Network, I share over four decades of research and shatter antiquated misconceptions regarding the end times. I offer glorious insights into God's incredible, specific 24 end-time prophecies—12 of which have already been fulfilled, 12 about to arrive. I offer a version that is enlightening and magnificent, representing the grandeur and glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

My podcast series provides you with an exciting, contemporary and biblically based interpretation of end-times prophecies with a positive perspective that shows the tremendous grandeur and love of our Lord. Through prophecy, we learn how much God desires to comfort and encourage us, how He speaks to us, directs us and protects us, and how He alone desires to guide us, as believers, in the last days. We have nothing to fear.

My first eight episodes are going to be important for all believers as we are witnessing incredible end-times events unfold before our eyes. New episodes will be released on Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

In Episode 1, I address something incredible in Isaiah 61 related to both the rapture and tribulation.

Episodes 2 and 3 will address Bible credibility and what God says about His book.

Episodes 4, 5 and 6 will cover the imminent arrival of Ezekiel 38. I will show how God tells us this comes before the rapture and tribulation and how He will save Israel in the process.

Episode 7 will cover the multiple deceptions at play today.

Episode 8 will address where the United States fits within end-times prophecy.

All eight episodes are going to be fascinating, so be sure to subscribe to 24 End Time Prophecies here so you don't miss a show. God is amazing!

To give you a head start on this topic, I offer two books on God's 24 end-times prophecies. The first, my novel The Pastor of the Last Days, is an easy and exciting read. My second book, Stunned, is highly detailed, using history, world events and over 800 Bible verses providing strong evidence that the 24-prophecy model is fixed on firm biblical ground. Also, at our Revere Today Ministries website, , I offer free download of the 24 Prophecy Road Map along with the first chapters of both my books.

We live in an incredible moment in history. God is telling us an amazing story about what has already been fulfilled and what is about to arrive. It is all fantastic news for those of us that love and place all our trust in Jesus the Christ, our Messiah.
