

2,552 Baptized on Florida Beach: 'Jesus Christ Is Still Changing Lives'

A Jacksonville, Florida church is reporting a historic turnout after 2,552 people stepped into the Atlantic Ocean to be baptized as they publicly declared their faith in Jesus Christ.

The powerful moment is yet another sign of spiritual awakening in America as thousands are born again and baptized in event after event from coast to coast.

This time, The Church of Eleven22 saw more than 14,000 churchgoers, family members, and supporters show up at Hanna Park over the weekend to cheer for those who were taking a major faith step in their walk with God.

The beach was once again filled with worship, prayer, celebration, and the joy of the Lord in the latest stunning beach baptism from The Church of Eleven22, which has seen several massive baptisms over the past few years.
