- Dreams from God are clear and coherent.

The first Scripture Hernandez uses to back up this point is found in Genesis 40:8 which reads, “And they said to him, ‘We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter for it.’ Then Joseph said to them, ‘Do not interpretations belong to God? Please tell them to me.’”

“In the case of Pharaoh and Joseph, Pharaoh had a hard time discerning the meaning of the dream, but Joseph didn’t. Why? Because Joseph had the Spirit of God within him,” Hernandez says.

“For the world, understanding God-given dreams or understanding supernatural dreams is a very difficult task,” he continues. “Dreams from God are always clear for the Spirit-filled. Now, this doesn’t mean that you’re always going to have the full picture, but this does mean that the part of the picture that you have will be clear.”
