

A 3-Step Gospel Message All Believers Should Follow

Let me start by asking you a question: Do you think our country presently is blessed or broken? If you say broken, here is the simple solution:

Now is the time for Christian believers to boldly make a public stance of their faith as never before. Powerful voices and institutions are increasingly seeking to totally eliminate Judeo-Christian principles from American culture and society.

By denying the core beliefs of America's Founders in limited government, free enterprise, individual rights and liberties endowed by our Creator, and replacing them with the historically destructive creeds of secular socialism, we are influencing upcoming generations of Americans at alarming rates. As attacks on traditional Judeo-Christian beliefs that founded our country grow in frequency and intensity, the need has never been greater for a national revival of our foundational principles throughout our society and institutions in America.

I want to stop now and make my point perfectly clear. I am not promoting a political party. I am promoting a foundational message that has been repeated by generations of innocent American school children; a message that is being subtly removed in classrooms from sea to shining sea:

"I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

God's Word promises in Proverbs 3:6: "in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct your paths." This statement holds true not only for America, but also for our daily lives.

The gospel message is simple:

Put God in everything you do: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind” (Luke 10:27).

Love your neighbor unconditionally: You are to love “your neighbor as yourself” (Luke 10:27b).

Fulfill the Great Commission: “Go into all the world and preach the gospel (Good News) to every creature” (Mark 16:15).

If you want to see America continually blessed, now is the time to step out in faith and spread the Good News. This is faith in action.

Wherever we go, every faithful Christian is compelled through obedience to Jesus to share His simple ‘three-step’ gospel message all across our land. {eoa}
