

Angels in the Operating Room Save Missionary's Life

The missionary was in bed when immense pain wracked his body. His color changed, his wife said, and she was sure he was in the throes of a stroke.

Stephen DeMoss' wife rushed him to the hospital where family friend Adura Haney happened to be on duty as the ER nurse.

But Haney had no idea it was DeMoss she was triaging.

Click here to watch the video to see what happened next.