

‘Be His Witnesses’: Believers Urged to Share Gospel During Pentecost

The mission of GO Day, an annual event on Pentecost Saturday, is calling believers worldwide to reach at least one person with the gospel.

“We celebrate His resurrection. We celebrate the victory over sin and death, but we forget about Pentecost and yet Pentecost is the time when He sent his Spirit, He empowers us to be His witnesses,” GO Movement Executive Director and COO Dan Brokke told CBN News. “And so, what better time to not just celebrate, but to activate in our own lives and God’s people all over the world to share Jesus with other people, to be witnesses for Him.”

To order Kathryn Krick’s book, Ignite Revival, visit .

Brokke shared more about the heart of the movement.

“GO Movement really has at the heart of it the belief that everyone can reach someone, but together we can reach our world and every believer is called to be a witness,” Brokke explained.

Believers are encouraged to adopt a simple three-point plan for family, friends and others which includes listening, sharing a personal testimony, and inviting the lost to enter into a relationship with Christ.

To read the full story, visit our content partners at CBN News.

Reprinted with permission from . Copyright © 2026 The Christian Broadcasting Network Inc. All rights reserved.