

Bishop Bill Hamon Celebrating 70 Years of Ministry

Apostles and prophets from different streams of the apostolic and prophetic movements celebrated Bishop Bill Hamon's 70th year in ministry and how he impacted their lives and ministries as they gathered from across the nation for two days in Waxahachie, Texas. The National Apostles and Prophets Roundtable and Conference on Mar. 12-13 was led by Elizabeth Tiam Fook of International Young Prophets in collaboration with Freedom Fellowship International with the event culminating in celebrating Hamon's 70th year of ministry.

On Mar. 13, those in attendance were encouraged to hear from Ana Werner, Rabbi Curt Landry, Dr. Mark Chironna, Pastor Ché Ahn, Chuck D. Pierce, John Kelly, Dan McCollam, Kim Bangs and many others. Healing rooms were open for prayer with Joan Hunter Ministries, and Freedom Fellowship International's hospitality was five star. There were panel discussions from apostles and prophets with four generations present, sharing biblical truth and revelational insights, with powerful worship and impartation.

Speaking to Hamon, Pierce said, "Evidently God has more for you to do. You keep going; we'll keep following. There will not be one word that you have spoken that we will let fall to the ground. Let's thank God for that."

"It was a wonderful experience to be a part of the celebration of 70 years of ministry for such a pioneer and general in the faith," said Demontae Edmonds of Destiny 4 the Nations. "Dr. Bill Hamon has been a forerunner as an author, speaker and apostolic leader that has been used mightily by God to raise up emerging prophetic voices globally. His impact on humanity can only truly be recorded by heaven. The spirit of unity present was a true testament to a new era of leaders working together for the furtherance of the gospel.

"The National Apostles & Prophets Conference 2024, hosted by Elizabeth Tiam-Fook, was a historic gathering of transformational leaders from around the country," said John Veal, senior pastor of Enduring Faith Christian Center in Chicago, Illinois. "It was a privilege to be invited and to interact with some apostolic and prophetic streams that were foreign to me previously. It was my first time meeting Bishop Bill Hamon, and it was a great honor being a part of his 70th year ministerial celebration. I will never forget this monumental event, the people that I met, the old friends that I saw and the words of wisdom that I received."
