Prophecy: We Are in the Beginning of Sorrows

In March 2020, I continued to hear the same warning echo in my spirit: The food supply is next.

I wrote in an article on about how the next sign of the times would be something that looks more like a famine. Prophetically, I saw a contamination coming to some of the food supply that would result in shortages in some areas, as well as sickness and deaths. I saw people rushing to order online, putting strain on the overall food supply.

We have since seen all of this. But what we could see next is even more troubling. Industry watchers are now agreeing food shortages are inevitable due to Russia's war on Ukraine.

Mrs. Robertson is survived by her husband, Pat Robertson, her four children, Timothy Robertson (Lisa), Elizabeth Robinson (Charles), Gordon Robertson (Katharyn), and Ann LeBlanc (Gary), 14 grandchildren, and 23 great-grandchildren.

administration. She worked as a fashion model and was a beauty queen in the Miss Ohio State contest.

Clinically Dead Woman Leaves Her Body, Catches Glimpse of Heaven and Hell

When Charlotte Holmes went to her doctor for a routine checkup, she got quite a shock. They told her, "Either you're having another stroke, or you're about to have a heart attack."

Her blood pressure had spiked to 234 over 134. Before long, Charlotte was having an out-of-body experience that turned heavenly.

"They called a code and they come running in. I was above my body. I could see them doing chest compressions. I could see them, all the nurses around. I could smell the most beautiful flowers I've ever smelled. And then I heard music. And when I opened my eyes, I knew where I was. I knew I was in heaven."

Prophetic Word: The Democratic Party Shall Not Stand

Recently, I was watching Steve Bannon's War Room: Pandemic, and I heard him say something that seemed unusually prophetic. He said, "We are going to take down the Democratic Party until there is not a single one of them left."

When I heard it, it was like being hit by a nuclear truth bomb. Part of operating in the prophetic is being able to hear a statement about the future, no matter what the source is, and discern whether it is truth or not. If stones can cry out and donkeys can see angels, then we must use our discernment gifts when processing information about the future from seemingly unspiritual sources.

Could it be that God is rearranging our system of democracy, a system that has been dominated by two parties for 168 years? Jesus said to His disciples, "Do you think I came to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but division" (Luke 12:51, NIV). Because the nations belong to Jesus, they will always be undergoing a purifying process with God separating what is holy from what is sinful. This separation is a kingdom principle that is unmatched.

Take Authority Over the Spirit of Jezebel, Even in Your Wilderness

For a long time, you have heard about how Jezebel will attack the prophets (1 Kings 18:4). The spirit of Jezebel especially loves to target prophetic ministers. Unfortunately, sometimes the spirit of Jezebel works through people closest to us. Most people who have the spirit of Jezebel operating through them are completely unaware of it.

The Jezebel spirit loves to control and manipulate. Sadly, people with past traumatic experiences can become controlling people. It keeps their focus on the outside and away from the trauma and hurt on the inside. To be cautious, perhaps we label too many things as the spirit of Jezebel. However, to be unaware of that evil spirit in the world today is foolish.

I heard someone say recently that the spirit of Jezebel is similar to Satan testing Jesus in the wilderness. Combating the spirited Jezebel can be like a wilderness experience. What I like about the story of Jesus in the wilderness for 40 days is when he had enough, he rebuked Satan. Jesus never fell for Satan's traps or schemes. We have learned many valuable lessons from Jesus' time in the wilderness. Is it possible that Jezebel is attacking you and your wilderness experience? {eoa}
