

Cindy Jacobs Prophecies: The Lord Says 'I Am Going to Put You Into a Season of Alignment'

I was praying for a word for you. Sometimes, we just need a word, don't we?

We say, "Lord, I'm just at a place where I need a word." Well, I'm a prophet and I kind of get things bubbling up in me spontaneously. But I also do see. I saw a picture of a table with a lot of little puzzle pieces—this puzzle is like your life.

Maybe you have some promises from God, which would be this big picture. Maybe you got a little of it, but you don't know how to put it all together. Now, let me prophesy into that.

The Lord would say, "I am going to put you in a season of alignment where you are going to look at these pieces of your life and you're just going to know what to do. Oh, this goes here and this goes here and this goes here." And the Lord says, "I'm even going to bring external circumstances around you, be it a promotion or just understanding. You're supposed to make that move to that city."

And the Lord says, "Now, I promised you a house. I gave you a prophetic word about a house and you've been looking here, but no, you didn't find it here because you're supposed to be over here." The Lord just says to you, "I am going to cause all the pieces to come together. Maybe it has taken you years to find just this little piece, but you're going to be surprised because there's going to be an escalation in your life."

All of a sudden, I'm seeing others come around you and they're going, "Oh no, no. I can see this. I can see that piece belongs there, and that belongs there." And I see suddenly that it's all going to come together and you're going to see the full perspective. The vision will come."

The Scripture verse is "though the vision tarry, wait for it." It's not going to be late. I know the frustration of having to wait. Everybody does. There are things we think God is going to do. We're pressing for it. We're trying for it. But I want to say to you that the Lord is at work in your life and even though you may just have two little pieces together, whatever.

The Lord just says, "I am the master puzzle worker. I am the one that comes and through the Holy Spirit's power, all these things are going to come together. You're going to reach your destiny." I see some of you. You're frustrated. You feel like you just can't break through to the next level.

The Lord just says to you, "I assure you that you're going to get there. I'm fighting for your side." To those that need funding; to those that are needing finances or capital investments; to those that maybe have a ministry and just can't seem to get the money that you need, the Lord says that you're going to see it happen in a way that you cannot imagine.

This reminds me of some things that happened where we had been struggling financially, and Chuck Pierce came and gave us a word. The word was, "You will never struggle financially again." Some of you may have heard this story already, but just forgive me. It's so good.

Chuck was going through a difficult time financially, which is rare for him, but it was because he had raised so much money to take care of the widows and the people in need in his geographic area, which is Corinth or Denton, Texas. That's about 30 minutes away from the Dallas airport. He was going through such a difficult time and was just in anguish. What am

I going to do? What am I going to do?

He was telling this problem to his brother Keith one day as they were driving along in their car. All of a sudden, he stopped at a light and a raven came with French fries in his mouth. It landed on the hood of the car, walked straight up to him, looking at him the whole time, and it dropped the French fries and flew away. Now, you know us prophets. We love prophetic stories. You remember when the prophet Elijah was suffering and hungry, and God sent the ravens to feed him because he was running from Jezebel. He now had food to eat. This was very prophetic; the French fries coming. Then all of a sudden, I think his brother said something like, "Where's the ketchup?" and another raven came with little packets of ketchup in his mouth and walked up and dropped it. I want to say this to you: We have a supernatural God. The Lord just wants to tell you that the situation you're in right now where you don't know what to do, you're going to know what to do. All those pieces are going to come together.

The second prophetic picture I want to give you ... well, probably the third now... is that I see a bank vault. What does a bank vault have? It has tumblers. In other words, there are things that have to come into place so that it will open up. When you turn to the right number, it makes one thing fall into place and unlock. Another one, and a second thing unlocks and so forth.

Well, I see that all these tumblers are going to unlock. I see that God's going to give you the combination of what you need to do. Isaiah 22:22 says that He's going to open the door that no man can shut. So, may God bless you. Be encouraged. Listen, I just get so encouraged giving these words of the Lord. I love you so much. {eo}
