

Could This Be the Way to the Mark of the Beast?

In a recent interview with Charisma Media, Pastor Billy Crone delved into the alarming rise of global movements that he believes are paving the way for the end times as described in the book of Revelation. Crone specifically highlights the World Economic Forum and its founder, Klaus Schwab, as key players in what has become known as the “Great Reset,” a global agenda that Crone argues aligns with biblical prophecy.

Crone explains that his research into recent world events, beginning with the global reaction to the pandemic and resulting crises in 2020, led him to Schwab and the WEF.

“This can’t be by chance,” Crone says. He linked Schwab’s vision, which aims to reshape global governance and economics by 2030, to a broader, darker agenda: “What I discovered was Klaus Schwab is basically taking the Third Reich agenda that Hitler wanted to bring to the world... and now Klaus has picked up the baton, and he’s bringing it to the whole planet.”

Crone connects this modern-day Great Reset to the biblical prophecy of the Antichrist’s kingdom in Revelation 13, which foretells a one-world government and a cashless society controlled by a single leader.
