

Debunking Common Misconceptions About Fallen Angels

Many believers hold the belief that fallen angels are demonic beings. It is a belief that holds no biblical providence, evangelist and healing minister David Diga Hernandez says.

“Nowhere in the Bible does it say that the angels who rebelled with Satan became demons upon the earth,” Hernandez says. “This is an assumption we make because there are missing links in the Scriptures. People will make the leap from the angels falling and rebelling with Satan all the way to ‘now they are therefore’ minions that are doing his bidding on the earth. Check out Revelation chapter 12 to discover the truth.”

Watch the video for the rest of this powerful teaching from Hernandez. {eoa}

David Diga Hernandez is author of 25 Truths about Demons and Spiritual Warfare (Charisma House, 2016), an evangelist, healing minister and host of Encounter TV. His evangelistic healing ministry is marked by a distinct presence of the Holy Spirit. A rising voice of healing, Hernandez is a unique and emerging spiritual leader, called to take God's saving and healing power to this generation.