

Dismissing the Religious Spirit with Liz Wright

In a recent episode of Live Your Best Life with Liz Wright, Liz shared three incredible encounters that reveal what Jesus is doing in His church at this time. The Lord is dismissing the religious spirit, once and for all, and healing our mindsets so we can step into our full identity and authority in Him! This is revelation she released into her International Mentoring Community and felt the importance of sharing publicly to encourage you about how Jesus is moving in us corporately.

The encounters Liz explains are messages of hope to the bride of Christ. In one, Jesus pressed His forehead against hers and revealed that He is healing mindsets and belief systems. In another encounter, Liz walked toward Jesus as a bride dressed in light. She joined Him in the throne and became aware of the authority she, as representative of us, has as the bride of Christ. In the third encounter, Liz stood before the Godhead and an arc of light came from them and shot through her entire being, aligning her mindset and awakening her to power.

Liz says, “We are in the finest hour. I believe we’re going to see what they walked in, in the early church, beginning to become our normal Christian experience.” This episode is an invitation to let the Lord heal your mind and deliver you from the fear and insecurity, which are fruit of the religious spirit. You’ll receive a deeper awareness that you are an image-bearer of the Most High God.

You are rising with Him to reign in the earth like never before. As you focus on the truth that the King of glory is revealing to you, you will grow in faith that you are the display of His splendor. We are the generation that heaven has been waiting for! {eoa}
