

End-Time Rebellion & Revival

We are living in a time where the nations of the earth are trying to cancel God and Christianity. In the face of rebellion that has only intensified with time, not many believers realize this is actually part of biblical prophecy coming to pass.

In this eye-opening episode of Truth Talks, Pastor Ché Ahn looks at Psalm 2 and the way that Scripture paints a prophetic picture of what Jesus would accomplish throughout history. Even when there is an all-out attack against the Christian faith, God the Father is confident in His plan of salvation for all of humanity.

The truth revealed in this psalm will give boldness to the people of God and encourage your heart to embrace faith instead of fear. Pastor Ché shares how this is not the time to draw back in intimidation – but to take God at His word!

You don't want to miss the incredible insights that are packed into this timely message. The Word of God tells us how the world will rebel against Jesus but God the Father, in His love and mercy, is offering salvation for all the nations of the earth. Tune into this powerful revelation of God's plan for revival and how you can be part of it!
