

End Times Signs: Are We Witnessing Civilization's Collapse?

In a prophetic dream, Rabbi Kirt Schneider received a powerful vision that he believes serves as a profound metaphor for the times we are facing today.

In this vision, Schneider found himself aboard a warship that was finally returning from an arduous and exhausting mission.

"There were hundreds of men and women that were in this warship, sleeping there," Schneider says. "Each one had their own little place where they were sleeping. And we had been out on this mission. And this mission that we had been very, very difficult. And finally, we were on the end of the journey. We were pulling into a port and we had completed the assignment connected with this particular mission."

Schneider says that he could feel the weight of the mission they had been on. As he was getting ready to get off the boat, an officer in this dream spoke to him with powerful words.

"He said, 'If you think that was hard, get ready. The next thing is going to be even harder,'" Schneider says.
