

Greg Locke's Stunning End Times Revelation with Alex Jones

During a riveting conversation on Infowars, Pastor Greg Locke sat down with Alex Jones to discuss the biblical value of the nation of Israel. Pointing to prophetic Scriptures, Locke double-downed on what we can expect to see in the end times as we await the Second Coming of Christ.

Jones first asked Locke for a short synopsis of how Revelation will play out, which Locke then pointed to Matthew 24.

"Revelation will the end times, the beginning of sorrows," says Locke. "Regardless of when people believe—pre-rapture, doesn't really matter because the whole theme of the Bible is 'make sure you are ready.'"

Locke points to the necessity of being right with Christ and living empowered by the Holy Spirit to endure in these wicked times.

"We know that when He comes again, the Bible says He'll set down on the Mount of Olives, split north and south, He'll walk through the Kidron Valley, He'll go right through the Eastern Gate," says Locke. "Jesus is going to walk right over death, and He's going to bring life to the entire world. Now, there's going to be a time that things get bad. There's going to be a remnant of Israel that is left, and there's going to be destruction, there's going to be wars, there's going to be rumors of wars, earthquakes, sickness, pestilence."

Locke then notes that the two witnesses will come in during the tribulation.

"They will come in halfway through the Tribulation," says Locke. "The last three-and-a-half years is called the Great Tribulation. And the Bible says, 'except those days are short, nobody's going to survive.'"

Locke, however, prompts people to take heart that God is still in control of it all.
