

How God Used This Death Sentence for His Wondrous Glory

Gary and his wife, Rosey, prayed against multiple medical reports so bleak they were told to plan Gary's funeral. But God called it off!

"We serve a God who heals," said Brausen, a writer, inspirational speaker and intercessor who has been in healing ministry for 14 years. "We were told to stand on Jeremiah 30:17, and that's what we did. God is in charge of our first day and our last, not cancer."

With God all things are possible. Learn how the Brausen family handled the battle on this episode of Sid Roth's It's Supernatural! {eoa}
