

Is Charlie Kirk's Death Helping Spark Revival?

Pastor and TPUSA Faith director Lucas Miles recently reflected on the powerful and unexpected moves of God he's seeing after the horrific assassination of conservative and Christian leader Charlie Kirk.

Miles joined CBN News to break down, in particular, the ways the Lord is stirring in young hearts and minds across America, and why he believes Kirk's life and death could ignite one of the greatest revivals the U.S. has seen.

The preacher and author of the new book, "Pagan Threat: Confronting America's Godless Uprising," praised Kirk for his legacy and looked ahead to the hope of seeing him again.

"He's one of a kind and just was a remarkable human being," Miles said of Kirk. "And I'm still very thankful to call him a brother in Christ, because I know that, in Christ, he's still alive and we're going to see him again."
