

Is World War 3 on the Horizon? The Warning Signs You Need to See

If you've been paying attention to the news lately, you might feel like the world is on fire. From Ukraine to the Middle East, from China to the United States, the drums of war are beating louder than ever. It's easy to dismiss these as just another cycle of global conflict.

But what if they are more than that?

What if these wars and rumors of wars are puzzle pieces falling into place, just as the Bible foretells?

Jesus warned us about days like these. In Matthew 24:6-7, He said, "You will hear of wars and rumors of wars... Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom." Sound familiar? Because that's exactly what's happening right now.

Europe Edges Closer to War

Let's start with Ukraine. The war that began in 2022 has dragged on for years, and now we're hearing Western leaders talk about sending troops directly into the fight. U.K. Prime Minister Keir Starmer has openly declared his readiness to deploy British soldiers to Ukraine. French President Emmanuel Macron has been pushing for a European Army since 2018, and now Ukraine's President Volodymyr Zelensky is calling on Europe to step up militarily.
