Part of Eckhardt's message centers on financial breakthrough, as he cites verse after verse that brim of the promises of God. This signals how prophetic decrees from the Word of God unlock divine results. Referencing Job 22:28, Eckhardt reminds us, "You shall decree a thing, and it shall be established." That is why each word spoken in faith this month is vital. The prophetic is not just predictive. It is creative. As God's voice is released through His prophets, so too is His power.

As July unfolds, Eckhardt's prophetic decree is this: the time has come for your "all things new" season. New finances, new grace, new doors, new miracles. Refuse to be tethered to the past. Walk in the fullness of what Christ has provided. Declare it, sow into it and live in the reality of it—a new creature in a new season of blessing, favor and unstoppable increase.
