

Jonathan Cahn Warns of Ancient Mysteries Returning Through Avatar Spirits

Best-selling author and prophetic voice Jonathan Cahn is once again sounding the alarm with his newest book, "The Avatar."

In a recent interview with Charisma Media, Cahn shared that behind America's modern history lies an ancient pattern—one that mirrors biblical archetypes and reveals the spiritual forces influencing our nation's leaders and culture.

According to Cahn, the concept of the "avatar" dates back to the ancient world. Pharaohs and kings were often viewed as incarnations or embodiments of their gods. He believes a similar phenomenon is happening today, even if those involved are unaware of it. "Behind every one of the major American leaders of the last 25 years is a prototype that they follow without knowing it," Cahn said. "These ancient spirits have manifestations among people, and leaders can end up serving as avatars without realizing it."

Cahn builds on the themes from his previous books, noting that as America and the West have turned away from God, they have opened the door to ancient pagan influences. These forces, he says, not only shape cultural trends but also play out dramatically in political life.

Cahn points to President Donald Trump as an example. He connects Trump to the biblical figure Jehu, a controversial warrior king who overthrew a corrupt dynasty in ancient Israel. "If you want to understand Trump, understand Jehu," Cahn explained. "Jehu was divisive, unpredictable, but used by God. He struck down the temple of Baal. In modern times, Roe v. Wade—the American temple of Baal—was struck down, and Trump was more instrumental in that than anyone."
