

Katherine Ruonala: Operating in Creative Miracles

Not only has God supernaturally equipped Katherine Ruonala to help you have experiential knowledge of Him, but Ruonala also operates in what is known as creative miracles.

On this episode of Sid Roth's It's Supernatural, Katherine explains that, after failing to see miraculous healing early in her ministry, she suddenly received a vision from God to not give up and to lay hands on the sick to see them recover. It has been happening ever since.

"If you don't quit, you win," Ruonala said. "I know God's will is to bring life and healing. I don't put my trust in a concept or theology, but in someone I know whose love surpasses all understanding."
