

Bart Pierce Prophecies: There Is Another Contraction Coming

I was praying this past Wednesday around 3 p.m. and I heard the Lord speak to me: "There's another contraction coming!"

Back in March of 2020, when we were aware the coronavirus had hit America, I heard the Lord say then that it was a contraction (as a woman in travail) to give birth. But, the Lord said, "This is not the time of birthing" ... there were "more contractions coming" before God birthed the next great revival.

This time., the Lord said there's another contraction coming. And, these contractions are coming closer together and would get more intense each time. He said we must push back against the voices of those who are saying that revival is coming soon, even as soon as this year. The Lord let me understand from the counsel of heaven that the wrath of God has not been satisfied and the cup of repentance is not filled yet.

I also understood that our prayers are disrupting Satan's kingdom and he has unlocked the chains of demons, the likes of which we have never seen before, to loose them on the earth. And, the prayers of the righteous are moving mountains, and we must not stop praying! This is "an alarm being sounded from God's Holy Mountain."

As we blow like the trumpets from the walls, may God's Watchmen not surrender to the false voices of retreat or of peace ... peace where there is no peace. God is going to birth something glorious—but not now! This is a major contraction. Breathe and push through and pray! Your prayers are availing much!
