

Learn From the Church's Prophetic History to Partner With God in Revival

It's time for God's people to arise and be radiant.

Right now is the most exciting season to be alive in history. In this episode of Truth Talks on the Charisma Podcast Network, Pastor Ché Ahn prophetically shares that the year 2020 marked the beginning of a great revival and that this will be a decade of great harvest in America.

Since the start of the 2020s, we did not just step into a new decade but a new era. We are living in a new season in the Spirit.

Because of the magnitude of what God is doing today, it is necessary for believers to be spiritually discerning like the sons of Issachar, who understood the times they were living in and knew what course of action to take accordingly. This type of spiritual discernment is part of responding to God's calling on our lives, both corporately and individually.

Pastor Ché talks about major revivals throughout history and the keys to seeing God move in power. Get ready to discover the three main characteristics of historic revivals and recognize how these moves of God forever changed human history. You will also learn four important lessons from both the highs and lows in church history.

This episode serves as a launching pad for understanding how God is going to move in this new era of the 2020s. Tune in as Pastor Ché unpacks what we can do in our individual lives and as a church to partner with God's promises in this historic season.
