

Massive Revival at Bookstore Sparks Prayer and Deliverance

God's power is moving mightily in one of the most unlikely of places: a bookstore.

In a powerful reel posted to Instagram by Kathryn Krick, more than 200 people came out to a signing for her new book, Ignite Revival, where many experienced the presence of God and were even set free by the power of the Holy Spirit.

In a caption on the video, Krick wrote, "God's power is not limited to the four walls of a church."
