Hundreds in Gaza Report Jesus Appearing to Them in Dreams

In the war-torn region of Gaza, a remarkable story is unfolding, echoing the biblical prophecies of the end times. According to Christian professor Michael Licona, more than 200 Muslim men have experienced life-altering visions of Jesus in their dreams, leading them to embrace Christianity.

Licona, a New Testament Studies professor at Houston Christian University, shared this extraordinary account through a Facebook post:

What John Calvin Got Wrong About the Restoration of the Kingdom

The book of Acts records that, after the resurrection of Jesus, He appeared to the apostles "over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God" (Acts 1:3c, NIV). This was in addition to the three-plus years they had spent with Him before His crucifixion, sitting at His feet and drinking in His words. Now it was time for Him to leave this earth, so the apostles asked Him in verse 6, "Lord, are You at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?" is seemed like a perfectly legitimate question.

After all, He had been speaking with them for more than 40 days "about the kingdom of God."

He had already spoken to them about His future coming to Jerusalem (see Matt. 24; Mark 13; Luke 21).

This Satanic Ritual Is Exploding in American Popularity

There is no sugarcoating this: America is in deep, deep spiritual darkness. If she continues down this track of satanic and demonic practice, she will see the Lord's hand removed completely, and suffer greatly for it.

Need proof of the decline in America? Look no further than a recent piece in Cosmopolitan magazine which defends and promotes this abhorrent satanic ritual.

Working in conjunction with The Satanic Temple, Cosmo promotes TST's abortion ritual to their millions of followers. Abortion itself is not new to the U.S., but performing it by way of satanic ritual in one's own home is taking an already deadly practice and making it worse.
