Kathryn Krick's 2025 Prophetic Word: Year of Acceptance

As we continue to seek the Lord and what He has to say about 2025, it is clear that God is ready to do exceedingly, abundantly far more than we ever could have asked for or imagined.

During a Five-Fold Church service, Kathryn Krick gave a prophetic word of what the Lord has placed on her heart for this coming year.

"I'm very excited about this year. I'm more expectant than ever for what God is going to do this year with what He has revealed for 2025," Krick says.

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: DeGeneres Left for England, but Does Her Lifestyle Remain?

When Donald Trump won the 2024 presidential election in a resounding victory over Vice President Kamala Harris (remember her?) media mogul Ellen DeGeneres made good on her threat to exit the U.S. She relocated to a large estate a couple hours outside of London, where she now resides with her longtime lesbian love interest. The Daily Mail reported that shortly after she moved in, her home suffered major flooding and damage (although DeGeneres brushed it aside as untrue).

The talented comedian and former talk show host continues to exert powerful influence in her attempt to model a fulfilling gay “marriage.” Not so long ago, her previous partner, Anne Heche, left DeGeneres and then tragically spiraled into cocaine usage, resulting in a major car accident, after which she was on life support until her tragic premature death.

Biblical Essentials for Navigating Marriage and Ministry

In a recent podcast, Vlad and Lana Savchuk discussed the struggles they’ve encountered with blending their marriage and ministry lives, and how the Lord has graciously led them to grow together over the years.

After the two first got married, Lana experienced spiritual warfare, including attacks in her sleep. She says she was going through a cycle of attacks that made her feel unlike herself and she could not seem to get out of this cycle. Vlad notes that during this time he also dealt with expectations that she would be involved in ministry in the certain capacity that he wanted. Despite these obstacles, the two continued to grow with each other and the Holy Spirit.

“When she would give insights into certain decisions that I would make, into certain decisions about our personal life, that I was amazed,” says Savchuk. “She just saw things straight. And the Lord started personally dealing with my heart and said, ‘You know, there’s two people that you need to keep very close, and you need to keep very honest with; that will guarantee your protection.’”
