Kenneth Copeland's Prophetic Word for 2025

During the Sunday service on Dec. 1, 2024, Kenneth Copeland shared his prophetic word for 2025 with the Eagle Mountain International Church congregation.

"In 2024, we're on victory shore," Copeland says. "We're still there. And I heard in my spirit, 'In 2025, the nation will come alive. And confess that daily throughout 2024, especially concerning the election.' Did it come alive or not?"

Now, Copeland says, we must get to work with the Holy Spirit for what is to come in 2025 and the years following it.

Jeremiah Johnson's Prophetic Warning: A Christmas Call for Healing

This Christmas season, Jeremiah Johnson issued a stark warning to Christians through a recent YouTube message. Drawing from a prophetic dream he said he received, Johnson highlights the spiritual dangers many face during the holidays, particularly those struggling with unhealed trauma and unresolved hurts.

Johnson's dream, which he referred to as urgent and timely, centered on what he described as "Jezebel's dungeon," a metaphorical representation of manipulation, control and emotional bondage. He warns of three specific groups of people that he saw in the dream, each vulnerable in distinct ways:

1. Those Facing Trials and Questions About God

Johnson explains, "There were people who had gone through severe trial in 2024 or the years 2023, 2022 ... death, disease, disaster. ... It's actually the questions and the pain through the trials." He notes how these experiences often lead to spiritual doubt and disillusionment, leaving individuals vulnerable to deeper wounds and isolation.

WATCH: Supernatural Music Plays During Worship Gathering

In the Philippines, a group from the Deep Believer prayer team leading a prison ministry had quite the surprise when their recorded time of worship was invaded by musical sounds from heaven.

Jennifer Bagnaschi of the "Deep Believer" YouTube channel discussed this supernatural phenomenon that was heard during a Zoom call where she and others heard this glorious wonder.

Bagnaschi says she does not normally jump onto the prayer Zoom calls, but in this case she decided to do so. When she got on the call, the prayer team wanted to play a recording for her of what they have been doing with the prison ministry there.

“You put on the recording that was filmed...singing in worship to the prisoners,” Bagnaschi says. “As you guys were singing, something miraculous happened.”
