Prophetic Message: Mike Tyson and a Confrontation With Death

In a recent broadcast, author, teacher and prophetic voice Joseph Z shared a prophecy he first released in live on Dec. 3, 2020.

Here is what Z shared nearly four years ago:

"I saw a heavyweight fighter coming out of retirement and death happened. Either to them or the person they fought," a video of Z shared.

Jeremiah Johnson's Post-Election Prophetic Warning

Following the reelection of Donald Trump, Jeremiah Johnson has come out with a post-election prophecy.

In a conversation with Benjamin Deitrick, Johnson says the thing we have to consider the most is what kind of policies will be implemented by those we elect to office.

"We're trying to align ourselves, exercising the privilege and the right to vote," says Johnson. "It feels like in the 2024 election things were pretty clear."

Digging Deeper: The Power of a Personal Prophetic Word

"He cares about me. He knows what I am going through. He is for me and not against me. I am not alone. It's not too late for me. Maybe I am significant."

These were my thoughts the first time a person gave me a personal prophetic word.

It was 1996. For nine months, I had been in the middle of the Brownsville Revival—quite literally. Because I was a columnist for the Remnant Newspaper and the editor of the Brownsville Revival Magazine, I had been assigned two of the best seats in the house. I was on the prayer team and so I did not have to wait in line outside for eight hours, rain or shine, with the thousands of others. My job as a host meant that I was to help the leaders, usually very high-level leaders, to first acclimate and then process what they were seeing and feeling.
