Are Half This Influencer's Followers Really Christians?

In one of his latest videos, Christian influencer Apostle Alexander Pagani questions whether or not half of the people following his online ministry are actually born-again Christians because of the commonality in today's society to mix half-hearted devotion to God with worldly customs that does not produce biblical fruit.

"I can say this boldly," Pagani says. "Sometimes I wonder if half the people that follow our ministries online if you guys are born again truly, or are you just following the newest Christian fad of Christianity. I'm here to tell you that if your faith is not anchored in Christ alone, by faith alone, in the Word of God alone and you didn't repent of your sins—not just believe in the cross, did you repent of your sin and believe that Jesus died on the cross, was buried three days later and resurrected from the dead?"

Pagani says the problem with today's Christianity is that the message of repentance of sins isn't being preached. Instead, he warns that only a feel-good message has become the main focus of many platforms.
