

Pastor Who Prophesied Trump's Victory: What You Don't Know About the Jerusalem Embassy

Frank Amedia, founder of Touch Heaven Ministries, says there is an untold story about how President Donald Trump chose to move the United States Embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem.

Amedia, who boldly prophesied Donald Trump's election victory long before the votes were tallied, says he connected with a mutual friend of Trump's before the president was even the Republican candidate to talk about the embassy move.

Amedia was part of "International Christian Embassy Jerusalem, which was formed then for Christians to have an embassy in Jerusalem saying we are a stakeholder for God that this is the eternal capital in Jerusalem."
