

‘Pentecost 2.0’: Kathryn Krick’s Powerful Testimony of Revival and Healing

The Spirit of the Lord is here in our world today.

Apostle Kathryn Krick is joyfully sharing how God’s mighty and faithful hand moved in miraculous healing and revival during the Flourish Conference at Five-Fold Church in L.A.

“God had spoken to me that it would be like the day of Pentecost,” Krick wrote in a statement to Charisma Media. “God far surpassed our expectations! Many are calling it Pentecost 2.0! Glory to God!”

Krick says attendance was around 1,000 people, and she and the others were expectant to see God move powerfully. Krick says the presence of the Lord was thick, as God brought unity between people from 33 nations and 40 states.

Krick reflected on how God showed up with miracles abounding everywhere, healing a woman who was blind.

“The next day on Sunday we experienced God move in even greater power,” Krick wrote. “A woman’s eyes opened up (she had very bad eye-sight), and her reaction is forever ingrained in my memory—pure joy, shock and gratitude to Jesus.”

Weeks after being prayed over at Krick’s Five-Fold Church, a man who had stage 3 colon cancer also came back to testify that his cancer had left after being prayed over.

"The doctors couldn't find the cancer on the scans!" Krick wrote. "He was completely healed!"

Krick documented this outpouring of the Holy Spirit in a YouTube recap, which showcased testimonies of many people who experienced God's presence in a new and meaningful way at the Flourish Conference. For Krick, seeing the Holy Spirit touch so many people was awe-inspiring.

"To see so many people from all over the world so united in heart, just wanting Jesus to have His way and so full of faith...it moved me to tears," Krick said in the video. "For every session God delivered so many people. I've been so humbled and blessed to be able to minister many times over and see God move in such power every time, but this was like something I had never experienced in my life."

God promises us that in the last days He would pour out His Spirit on all flesh and that sons and daughters would prophesy, and the old would dream dreams and the young would have visions. As we see God moving in the miraculous and setting people free, we are seeing the fulfillment of this promise come to pass. The Holy Spirit is here, and He is more than able to set the captives free.
