

Perry Stone Exposes the Dangerous Soul Ties to a Political Spirit

Perry Stone exposed the dangerous soul ties to a political spirit in a recent episode of The Jim Bakker Show.

“There is a political spirit, and there are people who are soul-tied to a political party, no matter what happens,” Stone says. “They don’t care if they kill babies, they don’t care if they destroy marriage, they don’t care if they wreck up the Bible.”

When generations vote for the same political party for generations despite the party’s changes, that’s a soul tie.

“Here’s why it’s difficult to break, because any tie like that is tied to emotion,” Stone says.
