

Personal Revival Is for You, Says Daniel Norris

Traveling evangelist Daniel Norris takes time in this video to unpack the term “personal revival” as well as explaining why the words “fire” and “revival” go together.

Out of obedience to God’s directive, Norris, his wife, Jenna, and their family are dedicating a year to travel the U.S. in the Trail of Fire tour.

“I believe God wants you to experience personal revival, and that can happen right here, right now, as you watch this ... You can meet with Him right now and your life will be forever transformed and changed,” Norris says.
