

Powerful Testimonies Flood In as Revival Fire Ignites Across New Zealand

Powerful testimonies are pouring out after revival fire hit Auckland, New Zealand.

In a new post Kathryn Krick shared powerful testimonies from her latest revival in New Zealand. She wrote:

God moved so powerfully at Revival Is Now Auckland! ☺☺ Many have shared powerful testimonies of the manifest power and presence of God they experienced while attending this event. People were being touched all over the arena, and miracles were happening both in person and through the screen! There are no limits to God's power!

One testimony from Etevis F. discussed the peace and joy felt during the event.

When we entered the arena, I immediately felt the peace and joy of God in the atmosphere. The praise and worship felt like open heaven, and the powerful testimonies brought tears of joy and laughter to my heart.

Another testimony from Lauryn described how the presence of God removed the burdens and weight she carried.

As soon as Apostle Kathryn began to pray, tears streamed down my face. I felt the presence of Jesus so powerfully, like a heavy burden lifting off my shoulders. His overwhelming love touched my heart in the deepest way. Thank You, Jesus, for this moment. I truly received Your presence and blessings.

A testimony sent in by Genzy D. described how the event left a lasting impact on the mind, fostering a sense of freedom.

My son, a friend and I traveled from Whangārei, and we are so grateful we did. I believe my son and I were delivered from intrusive thoughts, and he was also freed from negativity. It's now the third day with no negativity, and we both feel deep peace and joy. The anointing is real. Thank you Apostle Kathryn from coming and all glory to Jesus!

As these testimonies continue to come in, they serve as a powerful reminder that the move of God is not confined to a single moment or location—it is spreading through hearts and lives far beyond the arena's walls.

What took place in Auckland points to a deeper hunger rising across nations for the presence of Jesus and the transforming power of the Holy Spirit. For those who experienced it, the revival was more than an event; it was a divine encounter that left lasting freedom, healing, and renewed faith in its wake.

If these stories are any indication, the fire ignited in New Zealand may only be the beginning of a greater outpouring still to come.
