

Prophecies of the Coffeyville Outpouring

The Coffeyville revival has been continuing for nearly a year and a half, as prophesied by Kenneth Copeland and Oral Roberts.

This past Sunday night, January 9, 2022, evangelist and revivalist Darrin Brown, who is ordained by the Church of God (Cleveland, Tennessee), preaching hell, fire and brimstone, was used mightily by the power of the Holy Spirit as a prophecy was uttered by Assembly of God pastor Randy DePriest. This culminated with people fleeing to the altar and seeking refuge from their sins, and pleading with God as hymnist Frances Ridley Havergal eloquently penned on February 4, 1874, "Take my life and let it be consecrated, Lord, to Thee."

The Coffeyville Outpouring, moving from church to church in the city as the revivals did in the New Testament, moved this past Sunday night to Coffeyville's First Assembly of God, which is the former home church of Charisma author, Crusade and Television Evangelist Verna Hall Linzey and her brother, revivalist Franklin Hall, whose ministry gave rise to the sundry ministries of Kathryn Kuhlman, T.L. Osborne, Oral Roberts and many other "Generals" of the Pentecostal Movement.

Kenneth Copeland, who mentored a Charisma author and team leader of the Coffeyville Outpouring by the name of James F. Linzey, prophesied about 30 years ago at his Believers' Convention in Kansas City, Missouri that revival was coming to Coffeyville:

"Coffeyville, Coffeyville! Like the days of the Topeka Revival and the Azusa Street Revival, so shall the same outpouring of the Holy Spirit fall upon Coffeyville, Kansas. Watch! For the City of Coffeyville will be known for its great outpouring, just as in the days of the Azusa Street outpouring.”

He then stated to the arena-packed audience, “I don’t even know where Coffeyville is. But brother, look out! Keep your eyes on that city and keep your spiritual ears open. Great wonders are going to take place there first.” Pastor Purley Wilson of St. John’s Church of Faith in Coffeyville said, “A close friend of mine was at the Kenneth Copeland Convention over 30 years ago in Kansas City, Missouri, and she heard these words.” Also, Oral Roberts prophesied in his plane while flying over Coffeyville: “Right there! A mighty move of the Holy Spirit will take place.”

Coffeyville’s “Outpouring of the Holy Spirit” team leaders include Bishop Darren Brown of the Church of God; Pastor Randy DePriest of First Assembly of God in Coffeyville; Pastor and Mrs. Shannon Dozier and their associate pastor, Judy Mustang, of Life Point Church in Coffeyville; Pastor James Feltner of Emmanuel Chapel in South Coffeyville; Chaplain (LTC) James F. Linzey, USAVR; and Commissioner-Elect Rev. Jason Swindell in Coffeyville.

Pastor Gary Close of Word of Faith Church in Coffeyville said that he witnessed miracles and healings several times a week, during and after the revival meetings. Diverse infirmities disappeared, instantaneously and progressively; migraines dissipated; broken hearts mended; loss of finances was restored and what the devil stole was given back; prophecies and speaking in tongues with interpretation abounded. The warden of St. Paul’s Episcopal Church and the curator of the Brown Mansion of Coffeyville received the baptism with the Holy Spirit, as confirmed by speaking in tongues for the first time in her life, and she has been speaking in tongues since then. Due to her spiritual promotion, she is no longer a warden of the Episcopal Church. She now has a higher calling in the body of Christ.

If you cannot attend in person, please attend in the Spirit and pray that the Coffeyville Outpouring continue to reverberate throughout the region and to the world. Kansas is where worldwide Pentecostal movements have historically begun and is from where they continue to be birthed. {eoa}
