

‘Prophecy Fulfilled’: Spirit-Filled Songwriter Penned Lyrics at Exact Spot Where Trump Made History

In 2012, Sean Feucht, a Christian artist well-known for his work with Bethel, wrote the song “Finish What You Started (Song for North Korea),” while on the Korean Demilitarized Zone.

This is the same spot that President Trump and Kim Jong Un met, and shook hands on, right before they had a 50-minute meeting in North Korea this past weekend.

Feucht applauded Trump’s meeting with Kim Jong Un, along with many others around the world who deemed it a historical event. It’s a “prophecy fulfilled” Feucht told Fox News, saying that he “never imagined that the song would come true.”
