

Prophecy: The United Kingdom, The Great Shift and What it Means for Everyone

In this article, I will share several things that I believe are relative to right now. It includes prophetic words that I have received recently, and words that I have previously released.

This is mostly to make sure we realize where we are, and what is going on in the world. These things will affect us all. I encourage you to read all of it as I am going to touch on many things.

Below is a word that I released in 2018. I speak specifically about when Her Majesty the Queen would pass on, and the shift that would come with that. It will be greater than we realize. This marks the full ending of an era, and many shifts will come in the entire world.

Let me be clear ... now is the time to pray intensely for the UK and for what God wants to do there. It will affect the whole world.

Note: The United Kingdom is at a major shifting and turning point. The Lord did not speak to me about Charles at all, so I can't speak to his new reign. He did speak to me about William, Kate and their family. I have gotten the sense that King Charles will not reign for a long time as his mother did. Actually, it may not be long at all. I also feel that is why the Lord did not mention him. We do need to pray for the transition time and what it will be like during His reign, the time between now and when William takes the throne. A lot of damage can be done if he pushes a wrong agenda, even for a short time.

Remember, the Lord many times speaks to what He wants to happen. I also want to say that with many things in this word below, I had no way of knowing at the time of its release; being an American and not having knowledge of what would happen when she passed. I saw the great mourning and celebration of her death, and exactly how much it would be celebrated and honored. God has since spoken to me that it will happen exactly in that way ... more so than many of us in the U.S. can imagine. Liken it to JFK's funeral and honoring, but even more so. There will likely not be a funeral and honoring of anyone in the world that will be like this in our lifetime.

You will see many things in the next few weeks that will speak to a time long ago, and many references specifically to the World War II era. Even her death yesterday, was known within the government and Royal Family as "D-Day". There will be many more references and things you will see that will speak to this time. As many of you know, the Lord has shown me for the last two years, that we are coming into a time that will much resemble the time of World War II. I now believe her death marks the beginning of that time, and we will see an acceleration from this time forward. This will be happening around the world, not just in the UK. Much of what you read in this word below will begin now, after her passing. The Lord has shown me since this word was released, that due to the epic shift that this will bring, much of what will be happening in the UK, will eventually begin to happen in the rest of the world also.

I know what God has shown me about the Queen herself (not necessary all of her family). She had a mantle and place that many can't possibly imagine. Others in her family may not have lived up to her standing, and have done and been a part of evil things, but I do not believe she herself has been a part of that. She played a role greater than most realized. She was truly anointed to do that. Did she do everything right? No, but she did the best with what she had in most cases.

No, I don't "worship" her, or any such thing as that. I worship Jesus alone. I simply honor the office she holds, and what I have known about her life. I have spoken with those who have actually known her for years ... not just random hearsay or conspiracy theories. She is not some Luciferian, evil person, even if others are.

Great Britain Will Be Great Again

(A word for Great Britain, and the entire of the UK – released 5/23/18)

"There is a tremendous shifting coming in Great Britain, and the entire of the UK! There are amazing things in store for our British brothers and sisters, and some great changes coming!

The United Kingdom of Great Britain is rising, and I heard from the Lord that she is 'rising to the occasion' once again. Her destiny stands before her greatly in this hour, and much will change in the next several years, even within politics and government. Revival is at her shores once again! Reformation and revival beckon her forward into her destiny!

Will there be difficult and even tragic things that will happen in the months and years to come? for this time, the Lord is having me focus on the great things that He has in store for this kingdom.

Current Note: Notice the Lord even had me speak of "House churches/home groups" in the UK in this word from four years ago. Pray into these things with me.
