

Prophecy: 'Trust Me For Increase'

We're in a changing of seasons right now. If you read our prophetic word for 2023, this is going to be both a bountiful year and a year of turmoil.

Not only do we see this mix coming, but the Lord has spoken to us as prophets out of Psalm 23 that it's time for the table of the Lord. Many prophets brought this word forward; that He's preparing a table before us in the presence of our enemies and that there is divine provision. I've been praying into that word personally.

I've also had a vision from the Lord that Satan is coming to pressure you. I literally saw these giant hands coming down, just grabbing a hold of you and trying to squeeze your head. The Lord is saying, "The enemy is coming in like a flood, but trust me that I'm going to raise up a standard."

In other words, I see God just ripping off those hands from your head and the anxiety and the pressure and the stress are coming off of you. It is a stressful time.

Along with that, the Lord says, "I am training you for battle. I am training you on how to walk in a new season." He says, "Like any time of military training, it's intense. Don't let the intensity of the season frighten you. I am going to harden you through these difficulties, so that you can navigate a new time and a new way."

And I hear the Lord saying, "Even with the rising of prices and the inflation going on, I'm going to give you a rising of your faith. Trust Me for increase. You're not meant to decrease, but increase. I'm going to give you faith for the times and faith to overcome the challenge of the times."

✖ So, this is the picture: the enemy's pressuring you, and the hands of the Lord are bringing them off so that you can think more clearly. Well, that's a good word! I took it for myself.

Come on, I've taken it. You take it, too! God bless you.
