

Prophet Who Predicted Trump's Assassination Attempt Issues Warning of Dark New Year's Eve Plots

With 2026 just hours away, a prophetic message by Brandon Biggs, the man who predicted the attempt on President Trump's life, is taking center-stage as he foresees dark plots forming on New Year's Eve.

In a message shared on the YouTube channel, Eternity Files, Biggs says, "I was seeing over into New Year's Eve and the Lord warned us about major cities in America. I saw detail into New York, a major attack planned in New York for for New Year's Eve, praying over Miami."

He then says this warning wasn't just for America, but for Europe as well.

"Then I saw Europe again. And the Lord showed me England with the big ferris wheel, praying over the ferris wheel. The Lord said they're casing."

Biggs claims he also saw Six Flags in Texas in this vision to be praying over, with a call to intercede for the Sugar Bowl at the beginning of the year.

In a recent livestream on Biggs' Last Days YouTube channel, he shared news reports about how the New York Police Department is adding an additional safety screening for New Year's Eve celebrations, although there are no direct threats that have caused this to take place. This peculiar addition comes as The Guardian reports that Zohran Mamdani is set to take oath tonight at midnight “in a disused subway station beneath city hall that acts as turnaround for the local 5 train.” As the outlet noted, Mamdani chose this venue for the “inauguration of a new era.” As The New York Post noted, he will also be the first mayor of the Big Apple to be sworn in on a Quran. He will also have a daytime ceremony as well near City Hall.

With Biggs’ warning and these upcoming events, are we seeing ancient prophetic patterns coming to life?

Jeremiah 49:39 reads, “But it will come to pass in the latter days that I will restore the fortunes of Elam, says the Lord.” This speaks directly to the area of modern-day Iran, a homeland for Islam, and Ezekiel 38 speaks of this same Persia rising against Israel with many other nations. Is the stage being set for something bigger to happen than just New Year’s Eve?

These prophetic warns serve as a clarion call for prayer and discernment. From New York to England, Texas to the Sugar Bowl, the vision points to potential plots that demand the intercession of God’s people. Yet beyond these immediate threats, the Scriptures remind us that history is never random. As we step into this new year, the Lord is calling His Church to vigilance, to prayer and to alignment with His purposes.

Prepared by Charisma Media Staff.